SOCIOLOGY
DEPARTMENT
INDUCTION TASK
2017

Has the role of men and women changed within the family in the last 50 years?

Has the role of children changed within the family in the last 50 years?

Why are girls outperforming boys at all levels in education?

Has the education divide between rich people and poorer people improved over the last 50 years?

- Your preparatory task for the AS course in Sociology is to write a response to one of the above questions in approx. 500 words (about a side).
- There is no 'right' answer, but you should be able to convince the reader that you have good reasons for your point of view.
- Good sources of information include the BBC and Guardian websites but you can use any resources you choose
- Please have this ready to hand in to your class teacher
