The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act allows for a person who has been convicted of a criminal offence involving a sentence of not more than 2½ years imprisonment and who has since lived trouble free for a specified period of time (related to the severity of the offence) to be treated as if the offence, conviction or sentence had never occurred. This is known as a spent conviction.

The job for which you are applying is one of those to which the provisions of the above Act in relation to spent convictions do not apply. You must therefore disclose whether you have any previous convictions, whether or not they are spent.

Should you identify that you have a criminal conviction, this will be discussed in confidence at interview. However you should note that only convictions that are relevant to the job in question will be taken into account.

Do you have any criminal convictions whether spent or unspent? Yes / No

If yes please state:

If you do not disclose any conviction you have it could lead to your application being rejected, or, if you are appointed, may lead later to your dismissal. If between the completion of this application form and taking up a job within Urmston Grammar you are convicted of a criminal offence you must inform Urmston Grammar of this.

People who have convictions will be treated fairly and given every opportunity to establish their suitability for the job. All applicants will be considered on merit and ability.

Any information that you give will be kept in strict confidence and will be used only in respect of your application for the job.

Disclosure and Barring Service

Successful applicants will be asked to apply for a Criminal Record Check (Disclosure) from the DBS.

Further information about the Disclosure process can be found at www.disclosure.gov.uk

Declaration

I certify that the details on this application form and any supplementary information attached are true as far as I know. I understand that if I give false information or withhold relevant information, it could result in my dismissal.
